

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP

INTERNATIONALIZATION OF PROBLEMS OF REFUGEES, DISPLACED PERSONS, AND ETHNIC MINORITIES DURING COLD WAR

October 20-21, 2022

URAL FEDERAL UNIVERSITY

EKATERINBURG

CALL FOR PAPERS

THE WORKSHOP WELCOMES CONTRIBUTIONS ON THE FOLLOWING TOPICS

- Problems of the status of refugees, displaced persons, and indigenous minorities in international law during the Cold War;
- Role of international organizations in resolving the problem of refugees and displaced persons during the Cold War;
- International legal aspects of the problem of preserving the identity of ethnic minorities during the Cold War;
- Political contradictions of the Cold War era around the problems of refugees, displaced persons, and ethnic minorities;
- Political activism of refugees, displaced persons, and ethnic minorities as a factor in the global confrontation of the Cold War era.

Working languages - English, Russian

Please send your application (including your name, degree, affiliation, and contact information) and your abstract (up to 200 words) to:

alex_antoshin@mail.ru julia.zapariy@mail.ru

The deadline for applications and abstracts: September 20, 2022.